First Name | Jones | Update

Last Name

Last Name

Jones

English and Welsh: patronymic from the Middle English personal name Jon(e) (see John). The surname is especially common in Wales and southern central England. In North America this name has absorbed various cognate and like-sounding surnames from other languages. (For forms, see Hanks and Hodges 1988).

Local Board No. 5 [illegible]
Denver County [illegible]

[illegible]

Denver 2, Colorado

(LOCAL BOARD DATE STAMP WITH CODE)

April 1, 1944
(Date of mailing)

ORDER TO REPORT FOR INDUCTION

The President of the United States,

To WILLIAM HARVEY JONES
(First name) (Middle name) (Last name)

Order No. 1181

GREETING:

Having submitted yourself to a local board composed of your neighbors for the purpose of determining your availability for training and service in the land or naval forces of the United States, you are hereby notified that you have now been selected for training and service therein.

You will, therefore, report to the local board named above at 810-14th St., Denver, Colorado (Place of reporting)

at 8:45 A. m., on the 12th day of April, 19 44
(Hour of reporting)

This local board will furnish transportation to an induction station. You will there be examined, and, if accepted for training and service, you will then be inducted into the land or naval forces.

Persons reporting to the induction station in some instances may be rejected for physical or other reasons. It is well to keep this in mind in arranging your affairs, to prevent any undue hardship if you are rejected at the induction station. If you are employed, you should advise your employer of this notice and of the possibility that you may not be accepted at the induction station. Your employer can then be prepared to replace you if you are accepted, or to continue your employment if you are rejected.

Willful failure to report promptly to this local board at the hour and on the day named in this notice is a violation of the Selective Training and Service Act of 1940, as amended, and subjects the violator to fine and imprisonment.

If you are so far removed from your own local board that reporting in compliance with this order will be a serious hardship and you desire to report to a local board in the area of which you are now located, go immediately to that local board and make written request for transfer of your delivery for induction, taking this order with you.

Member or clerk of the local board.

In Remembrance

The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures: He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul. He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil: for thou art with me; thy rod and thy staff they comfort me. Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies; thou anointest my head with oil: my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life: and I will dwell in the house of the Lord for ever.

"Star-Spangled Banner"..... Graduates and Audience

O say, can you see by the dawn's early light
What so proudly we hail'd at the twilight's last gleaming
Whose broad stripes and bright stars, through the perilous fight
O'er the ramparts we watch'd, were so gallantly streaming?
And the rocket's red glare, the bombs bursting in air,
Gave proof through the night that our flag was still there.
O say, does that Star-spangled Banner yet wave
O'er the land of the free and the home of the brave?
—Francis Scott Key

General planning of the graduation speeches was done by a volunteer graduation theme committee made up of students and class sponsors. The committee included:

Verner Friedman
LaKay Gottier
Edwina Joanne Lorenzon
M. Marquine Page
Marie Lumena Pemberton
Louann Mary Robinson
Marion Norma Scherrer
David M. Seaver
Anita Joan Younce

The honorary alternate speakers are Golda B. Clarkin, LaKay Gottier, Barbara L. Kearns, David M. Seaver, and Curtis R. Willson. Charlene F. Edwards trained the speakers.

We will be grateful if our audience will be seated after the singing of "America" and remain seated during the recessional.

Graduates will return to the stage of the auditorium as soon as they check in their caps and gowns. We shall appreciate it if you will meet them on the stage where there is more space. The parents and friends will not be permitted in the basement of the auditorium.

To My Sister

I love you my sister

You've always been there,

to comfort and love me and let me know you care.

And when you were a child and took care of us all, God stood by your side and understood all.

He gave you the strength and your purest of soul, he gave you the laughter to lessen the toll.

Throughout your life, the people you've touched, will never forget, your kindness and love that mean so very much.

You reap what you sow and so you have been blessed, by the love of your family, who knows you're the best.

Thank you my sister, I love you so dear and if you ever need me, I will be here.

Love,

Patty

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be Thy name.
Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread,
and forgive us trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever. Amen.

Amazing Grace

Amazing grace! How sweet the sound that saved a wretch like me!
I once was lost but now am found, was blind but now I see.

'Twas grace that taught my heart to fear, and grace my fears relieved;
how precious did that grace appear the hour I first believed!

Through many dangers, toils, and snares, I have already come;
'tis grace that brought me safe thus far, and grace will lead me home.

When we've been there ten thousand years, bright shining as the sun, we've no less days to sing God's praise than when we'd first begun.

How Great Thou Art

O Lord my God, When I in awesome wonder,
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made;
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy power throughout the universe displayed.

Refrain
Then sings my soul, my savior God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art.
Then sings my soul, my savior God, to Thee,
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!

When through the woods, and forest glades I wander,
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees.
When I look down, from lofty mountain grandeur
And see the brook, and feel the gentle breeze. Refrain

And when I think, that God His son not sparing;
Sent him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin. Refrain

When Christ shall come, with shout of acclamation,
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart.
Then I shall bow, in humble adoration,
And then proclaim: "My God, how great Thou art!" Refrain

Solstice Greetings from the Medinas

Bill continues to play real life Monopoly and teach his Real Estate investment skills. He spends much of his days working as a handy man keeping up our rental properties.

Marsha teaches outdoor education part time, Jazzercises, gardens and messes around the house.

Darcy and friend, Amanda, ponder what to do now that they have graduated. Darcy is finishing her first semester at Sonoma State University, majoring in psychology. She has joined Americorps, tutoring elementary students.

Highlights of the year included a quick trip to Florida, cruise to Alaska, a week in Napa with Marsha's parents and celebrating our 25th anniversary. We were saddened by the sudden passing of Bill's mother in April.

Alex is thinking about what to do when he graduates from Cal Poly with a business degree next December. He worked with Bill's Real Estate Investment company all summer, learning a lot but not making much money....yet. James is back from a 5 month trip working and adventuring in India. He is presently looking for a career in marketing.

Solstice Greetings from the Medinas

Highlights of the year included a fishing trip to Alaska, an Elderhostel trip with Marsha's parents to Quebec, real estate shopping trips to Texas and Mississippi and the beginning of an addition to our house.

Bill has learned that you don't have to go to Asia to have new cultural experiences. We now have an 84 unit apartment complex in Mississippi. Bill continues to play real life Monopoly. He is looking into buying utilities after he takes a class on solar energy generation.

Darcy is in her second year at Sonoma State. She has only changed her major once, but her hair has changed several times.

Who would have thought that adding a bedroom and bath would require the destruction of another bedroom and the entire living room? We are in cramped quarters with Darcy and Alex farmed out to friends and Grandpa's.

James has a job in internet marketing. He goes on outdoor adventures with his girlfriend, Liyun, as often as he can get away.

Alex graduated last week from Cal Poly, San Luis Obispo. The whole family spent a fun weekend watching him graduate , bird watching and exploring Morro Bay. We came home with his kitten, evening the dog to cat ratio to 2 to2.
Alex had a summer internship at Lockheed in Palmdale. They liked him so much they offered him a contract! He will only be roommates with Grandpa for a few more weeks.

Solstice Greetings from the Stallions
